

AGS CONFERENCE 2014: CYBER-DEVELOPMENTS IN INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS SCHEDULE

Thursday 17th April, 2014

10h30-11 am	Opening remarks of Conference	Introduction of 1st Keynote Panel	Breakfast	Moderators
11 am- 12h	Keynote Opening speech: Cyber-Diplomacy between participation, transparency and secrecy		Ambassador Wilfried Bolewski
12h - 13h30	L U N C H
13h30 - 15h30	Panel 1		3 presenters	Dr. Ruchi Anand
Security	1) Andrzej Kozlowski University of Lotz The United States Cyber Command: Toward the Militarization of the Cyberspace 2) Lina Nasr York University Waging War on the Citizen: State Sovereignty, Citizen Death, and War on Terror 3) Magdalena Tsankova Central European University Cybersecurity: How we learned to start worrying and fear the Internet
15h30 - 16h	B R E A K
16h - 18h	Panel 2		3 presenters	Professor Patrick Clairzier
Democracy	1) Narvoop Sahdev University of Turin Using ICT for International Development: A Study of the Canadian Approach and Lessons for India 2) Fabio Cristiano Lunds University Hacktivism, Cyber Diplomacy and Multitude: Virtual Political Practices in Palestine and Elsewhere 3) Maria Cataldo/ Keri Cameron Rochester Institute of Technology Cyberdemocracy: Assessing the European Union

Friday 18th April, 2014

10h - 12h	Panel 3	3	Professor Joav Toker
Media	1) Ashley Gorham University of Pennsylvania Does Information want to be Free? 2) Elizabeth Kirley-Switzer York University Reconsidering Reputation: Can the 'Right to Erasure' inspire an International Law to protect Privacy and Identity. 3) Vanda Cernohorska The New Media: A Consciousness- raising tool for the contemporary Women's movement	presenters
12h - 13h30	L U N C H
13h30 - 15h30	Panel 4	4	Ambassador Wilfried Bolewski
Diplomacy	1) Clement Guitton Kings College London Strategic Considerations on the Plausible deniability of State- sponsored Cyber Attacks 2) Josef Kosc Sciences Po Towards a New Sustainable Diplomacy: Pragmatic Lessons for the 21st Century Political Actor 3) Nikola Schmidt The Fluid Character of Cyberspace and the implication of the International Regime Development 4) Walter Carnota University of Buenos Aires Technological Innovation in Argentine and American Judicial Politics	presenters
15h30 - 16h	B R E A K
16h - 18h	Keynote 2	4	Dr. Elizabeth Milovidov
Child Rights & Cyber Developments	Sara Devlin US Embassy, State Dept. Africa Regional Services	presenters

Dr. Susanna Greyer
ECPAT Luxembourg

Melinda K. George
OECD Wikichild

Alexis Niki
Story Consultant & Founder of StoryNova

18h - 18h30

Closing Remarks