

AGS Seminar on Religion and International Relations

---

“Religious Minorities and Freedom of Religion in the World”

Saturday, 22 April 2017, Paris

- 10:00      Opening ceremony:
Dr. Eileen Servidio-Delabre, President of the American Graduate School in Paris
- 10:15      Introduction:
Dr. Manlio Graziano, Assistant Professor, American Graduate School in Paris
- 10:30-12:00 Presentations:
Ambassador Michael Einik, Senior US Diplomat, Associate Professor at AGS
“The U.S. Department of State Policy about Religious Minorities and Liberty of Religion in the World”
Wanrawee Kruawan, M.A. Candidate 2017, American Graduate School in Paris
“Unrest in the Southern-most Provinces of Thailand: Minority Malay-Muslims in the Malay Peninsula”
- 12:00-13:00 Break (lunch at AGS)*
- 13:00-15:00 Student Presentations and debate
Dario Scozia, University of Roma I (Italy)
“‘Keep Moving’. Ideas of ‘Movement’ in the Teachings of International Central Gospen Church”
Rosella Pace, University La Sapienza, Roma (Italy)
“The Valdesis: The Long March to Freedom of Religion”
Farah Laouari, Université Paris-Sud (France):
“Christian Minorities in Arab Countries”
Mathilde Prévost, Université Paris-Sud (France):
“Muslim Minorities in China”
- 15:00      Conclusion:
Dr. Christophe Grannec, Researcher, GSRL-CNRS (France)